

SPECIAL EDUCATION DIRECTOR CERTIFICATE

Fact Sheet: Doctoral Track

EVANGEL
UNIVERSITY

Certificate Course Info

Completers of the Ed.D. in Educational Leadership, Curriculum & Instruction program may obtain Special Education Director certification by first earning Building Level Principle certification.

To earn Building Level Principal certification, students must complete EDL 545, EDL 555, EDL 515, EDL 694, and EDL 685.

Following Building Level Principal certification, students interested in the Special Education Director certification must complete EDL 698 and EDL 699.

Building Level Principal

EDL 545 (2 credits)

Foundations of Educational Administration

EDL 555 (3 credits)

The Principalship

EDL 515 (3 credits)

Administration of Special Programs

EDL 694 (3 credits)

Leadership Internship K-12

EDL 685 (1 credit)

Capstone

Special Education Director

EDL 698 (1 credit)

Special Educational Director Initial Internship

EDL 699 (2 credits)

Special Educational Director Culminating Internship

Prerequisites:

Completion of the Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership, Curriculum & Instruction degree

Program starts: Anytime

Program format: Two or three online courses each semester

Tuition: $300 per credit for 2022-2023

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Online application, resume, statement of purpose, Missouri Educator Profile results, college transcript(s), background check (required for practicums and internships), two references

For More Information

Dr. Susan Langston

Ed.D. Program Coordinator

LangstonS@evangel.edu | 417.865.2815 ext. 8552