

Bachelor of Science in Mathematics Education

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed.

1. Develop problem solving skills.
2. Model real-life phenomena.
3. Improve technological skills.
4. Improve proof techniques.