

Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by the Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Interpret texts of the Hebrew or Greek Bible and produce scholarly exegetical presentations in written or oral format.
2. Articulate a knowledge base of the discipline of theology and express theological ideas in a cogent manner that is in keeping with academic study.
3. Express philosophical ideas in a cogent manner that is in keeping with academic study.
4. Demonstrate critical thinking skills that will enable them to dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in their chosen vocation
5. Summarize knowledge of church history within a given period and be able to assess and discuss the development of Pentecostalism and write a scholarly research paper in the field of church history.

Biblical Language Track Additions

1. Translate biblical and ancillary texts in a manner that is in keeping with academic language study
2. Demonstrate competence in advanced-level vocabulary, grammar, morphology, syntax, parsing, and text-critical analysis.