

Graduate Counseling Assistantship Information

Dear Counseling Student;

The Counseling Program has graduate assistantships available for the upcoming 2020/21 academic year. Assistantships qualify as campus employment and the $3,000 is paid out over the traditional academic year. If you are interested in applying for an assistantship please submit an application to Amanda Cox at CoxA@evangel.edu. The deadline is June 3, 2020.

The application calls for a personal statement explaining why you are a good candidate to receive a graduate assistantship. Please feel free to attach additional information or documents to the application.

Graduate assistantships are awarded on:

1. Academic performance (GPA, awards, research, service)
2. Financial need
3. Leadership – professional activity, goals towards doctoral studies in counselor education
4. Skills - Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Publisher), research skill, APA writing, learning management systems
5. Enrolled full time
6. Availability

Awards will be announced July 1, 2020. If you have any questions, please contact me or Amanda Cox at CoxA@evangel.edu.

Students desiring financial aid must apply each academic year. Notification letters will be mailed to those who have been awarded assistantships.
