Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Demonstrate knowledge and skill of inductive and deductive logic.

2. Compose a philosophical argument, written and verbal.

3. Summarize the history and basic problems of philosophy.

4. Explain the main problems in epistemology.

5. Analyze basic arguments regarding interpersonal relationships. (ethics or politics)