

Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies

---

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by the Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Interpret texts of the Hebrew or Greek Bible and produce scholarly exegetical presentations in written or oral format.
2. Articulate a knowledge base of the discipline of theology and express theological ideas in a cogent manner that is in keeping with academic study.
3. Express philosophical ideas in a cogent manner that is in keeping with academic study.
4. Demonstrate critical thinking skills that will enable them to dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in their chosen vocation
5. Summarize knowledge of church history within a given period and be able to assess and discuss the development of Pentecostalism and write a scholarly research paper in the field of church history.

Biblical Language Track Additions

1. Translate biblical and ancillary texts in a manner that is in keeping with academic language study
2. Demonstrate competence in advanced-level vocabulary, grammar, morphology, syntax, parsing, and text-critical analysis.

Bachelor of Arts in Children's Ministries

---

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by the Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Explain the special educational and ministerial needs of children.
2. Design a leadership plan for the whole spectrum of children's ministries within a local church.
3. Develop and conduct biblical, Pentecostal ministry for children in a local church.
4. Exhibit professionalism and competent ministerial skills including interpersonal relationships, budgeting, and coordination of church ministries.

Bachelor of Arts in Church Leadership

---

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by the Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Discuss the historical and theological nature of the church
2. Explain principles of evangelism and discipleship
3. Develop a program to equip lay leadership
4. Explain theories of educational psychology
5. Compare and contrast multicultural and multiethnic communication styles.
6. Examine foundations for pastoral counseling
7. Summarize church management practices
8. Demonstrate principles of Biblical preaching and teaching

Bachelor of Arts in Intercultural Studies

---

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by the Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Explain Christ's mandate to make disciples of all nations, and the practical application of this command, based on an accurate understanding of the Bible and culture.
2. Communicate with at least basic proficiency in a foreign language.
3. Explain the ways in which culture, geography and history, in diverse human societies, interconnect with the past, present and future and affect intercultural interactions, conflicts and collaborations.
4. Compose a scholarly exegetical research paper incorporating critical thinking skills, around knowledge and skill across contributing streams of theology, history, linguistics, social science, and strategy to work in diverse settings.

integrate content knowledge into critical thinking skills around issues of culture, cultural variation, and intercultural interactions, conflicts and collaborations

-
-
- demonstrate competence in intercultural communication skills essential to success in a globalized and multicultural workplace
-
- demonstrate the ability to apply social science principles, humanities content knowledge and intercultural communication skills in the workplace.

1.

ULO-

1

2. Demonstrate integrative knowledge and skill across contributing streams of theology, history, linguistics, social science, and strategy to work in diverse settings.

ULO-

3

3. Assess cultural and contextual realities in order to develop Christian perspectives and responses toward cross-cultural problems.

ULO-

1

4. Express the significance of growing in Christ-like character as a central component of preparation for service across a broad range of vocations

2.

Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy

---

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed:

1. Demonstrate knowledge and skill of inductive and deductive logic.
2. Compose a philosophical argument, written and verbal.
3. Summarize the history and basic problems of philosophy.
4. Explain the main problems in epistemology.
5. Analyze basic arguments regarding interpersonal relationships. (ethics or politics)