

CV Information

Name: Cameron A. Pace, Ph.D.

Current Rank: Full Professor and Department Chair (starting 2006)

Date of Hire at Evangel University: August, 1990 (29 consecutive years)

Achieved tenure: Yes

Education:

Ph.D. in Communication Studies, Regent University – May 2003.

Dissertation title: Web Usability and Persuasion: A Content Analysis of Campaign Web Sites During the Fall 2002 Election.

Western Michigan University, added minor in English for secondary certification, 1989.

Master of Arts in Communication, emphasis in Film and Television Production, Regent University, January 1985. Master's Thesis/Portfolio title: Creating Effective Television Commercials for the Local Church

Bachelor of Arts, Evangel University, May 1982.

Major: Speech/Drama Education. Minor: Broadcasting

Outstanding Graduate in Speech/Drama Education Award

College Courses Taught:

Electronic Media, Video Production, Electronic Cinematography, Electronic Journalism, Mass Media Law, Political Communication, Introduction to Film, Aesthetics & Techniques for Film and TV, Radio Production, Argumentation & Debate, Audio Production, Web Design, Multimedia, DVD and Blu-ray Production, Methods of Teaching Speech/Drama, Methods of Teaching Journalism, HDSLR Photography, Avid Editing, Broadcast Management and Promotion, Television Workshop, Film Workshop, Radio Workshop, Multimedia Workshop, and Principles of Directing Theater.

Previous Employment:

Teacher of secondary education, First Assembly Christian High School, Kalamazoo, MI. Taught subjects of English, Drama, Mass Media, Journalism, Speech, middle-school science. Directed high school theater program. Advised student newspaper and yearbook. Directed high school sports for cable television. Coached girls' volleyball and basketball. 1986-1990.

Promotions and Drama Director for First Assembly of God Church, Kalamazoo, MI. Duties included public relations tasks, newsletter production, commercial productions, and theatrical direction of youth and choir productions. Part-time 1986 -1988.

Announcer and newscaster. WKPR-AM Radio Station, Kalamazoo, MI. Part-time from 1980 through 1990 – summers and other school breaks.

Video Producer. C & G Productions, Kalamazoo, MI. Freelance work shooting video for corporate and personal clients such as weddings and special events. 1985 – 1990.

Production Assistant Intern. WYAH-TV, Portsmouth, VA. Duties included operating cameras, floor directing, and stage setup. 1984.

Receiving Clerk and Salesperson. Zayre Department Store, Virginia Beach, VA. 1982 – 1985.

Announcer/disc jockey. WAOP-AM Radio Station, Otsego, MI. Summer 1979.

Personal:

Age: 59

Marital status: Married, with 2 grown children

Church attendance: James River Assembly of God

Community Service: (non-paid, volunteer positions past and current)

Volunteer at Convoy of Hope, Springfield, Missouri.

Stage camera operator for James River Assembly of God.

Workshop instructor for Missouri Film Alliance of Springfield – Teen Film Workshop.

Member of Educational committee for Missouri Film Alliance of Springfield

Educational technology consultant for New Covenant Academy Board.

Coach/coach's assistant for girls' basketball, volleyball – YMCA, The Courts, etc.

Donated time for editing/production of video projects for daughter's high school.

Extra-Curricular Involvement:

Current faculty adviser to EUTV Television and EU Films - includes acting as executive producer for all shows, producing sports programming, production of promotional materials, and station representation. Also includes oversight of student film productions.

Past faculty adviser to Crusadermedia.com student website – 3 years.

Past faculty adviser to KECC campus radio station – 13 years.

Memberships/Associations:

Missouri Broadcast Educators Association, member

Broadcast Education Association, member

Missouri Film Alliance of Springfield

Presentations/Publications:

Online publishing of Ph.D. dissertation May 2003, Web Usability and Persuasion: A Content Analysis of Campaign Web Sites During the Fall 2002 Election.

Presented paper in Ph.D. colloquium, Regent University, June 2000. Title: "Movies and the Church: The Cultivation of Pentecostal Youth."

Presented paper in Ph.D. colloquium, Regent University, December 2000. Title: "Kenneth Burke and Persuasion: A Dramatistic Analysis of the Hillary for Senate Website."

Review of book All that Glitters for Pentecostal Evangel, 1991.

Film and Television Productions:

Director, audio supervisor, and screenwriter for short film comedy Out of Frame presented at the SATO 48 Film Challenge, April 2014. Nominated for best audio.

Produced and edited documentary program Journey to Qatar for Communication Department and EUTV broadcast spring 2014.

Director and screenwriter for short film drama Champion of Fire presented at the SATO 48 Film Challenge, April 2013. Won best cinematography and best audio award. Also accepted and shown at the Brownfish Short Film Festival – New York City.

Screenwriter, production designer, and acting coach for short film comedy The Fortune Cookie presented at the SATO 48 Film Challenge, April 2012.

Director of Photography for short film drama Antidote presented for competition at the SATO 48 Film Challenge April 2011.

Executive producer and audio mixer/editor for feature film Anodyne produced by EU Films, April 2012. Film was accepted for showing at the Texas Christian Film Festival.

Producer, photographer, and editor of short film documentary Mission to Spain produced for ECTV cable broadcast, May 2006.

National Conventions and Conferences:

National Association of Broadcasters Convention, Las Vegas, NV. Attended every April from 1993 to 2014. Also attended the Broadcast Educators Association Convention, which is held at the NAB each year.

College Media Advisers and Associated Collegiate Press Association Convention. Attended November 1990 in Washington, DC, and November 1991 in Denver, CO.

National Communication Association Convention. Attended November 2003, Miami Beach, FL.

National Religious Broadcasters Convention. Attended February 1995, Indianapolis, IN.

City of the Angels Film Festival and Reel Spirituality Conference. Attended 2007 through 2011, Los Angeles, CA.

Miscellaneous Achievements:

Re-established a journalism education program of study at Evangel with assistance from the Education Department and in cooperation with the Humanities Department. Referred to as the Communication Arts Education major. Effective 2013.

Developed program of study in political communication in cooperation with the Social Science Department. This major is currently a track under Communication Studies. Effective 2012.

Developed curriculum and program of study for film and digital arts programs. Effective 2010. These programs were an outgrowth of the electronic media program of study established in 2002.

Developed curriculum structure for Advertising and Public Relations program of study effective in 2000. This was done in consultation with communication faculty colleagues.

Developed and established new student medium – ECTV Pictures – currently called EU Films from the Film Workshop. This student organization became independent of ECTV in 2009 with its own budget.

Developed and established new student medium – Crusadermedia.com – student website featuring content of all other student media.

Re-structured Evangel College Television – now called Evangel University Television in 1993 into a student media organization with its own budget. Established new student television program Strobelight in 1992.

Excellence in Teaching Award. Kalamazoo Gazette Newspaper. 1989.