

Dual/Concurrent Enrollment Online Courses

Fall 2021

The following table lists the online courses that Evangel University has available as dual/concurrent enrollment options for high school juniors and seniors.

- Fall 2021 courses start August 25 and end December 11 (15 weeks).
- Textbooks are available from the Evangel Bookstore website (select "FA-21" as the term).
- Virtual proctoring is used with most online quizzes and exams (requires a working webcam).

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Course Title and Catalog Description	Lecture Number	Credit Hours	Tuition Cost
<input type="checkbox"/>	BIBL 116 New Testament Literature An introductory analytical survey of the New Testament in its historical-cultural and literary context. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	BIBL 115 Old Testament Literature An introductory analytical survey of the Old Testament in its historical-cultural and literary context. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	PHIL 110 Introduction to Critical Reasoning Exploration of topics in informal and inductive reasoning with emphasis on recognizing and evaluating arguments and fallacies in ordinary, literary, and scientific contexts. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	ENGL 111 Composition Introduction to the thesis-support essay form, including informative, persuasive, and documented, with an emphasis on avoiding plagiarism. Includes strategies for organizing, writing, editing, revising, quoting, summarizing, paraphrasing, and documenting. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	ENGL 123 Introduction to Literature Introduction to understanding and interpreting literature. Literary selections drawn from various cultures and at least three common genres. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	FIN 138 Personal Finance The purpose of this course is to provide the student an overview of the role stewardship plays in one's daily life. There is a strong emphasis placed on Biblical purposes of money, attitudes towards financial wealth, and accountability for personal resource choices. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 4	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	MGMT 235 Organizational Design and Management Introduction to management. Contingency view of management theory and practice. Emphasizes skills used by managers to get the job done: planning, organizing, directing, and controlling. Integrates the functions of management with appropriate quantitative and behavioral concepts. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 1	3	$195

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Course Title and Catalog Description	Lecture Number	Credit Hours	Tuition Cost
<input type="checkbox"/>	GOVT 170 Introduction to American Government Analysis of the structure, principles, and processes of the American federal government. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	HIST 111 American History I Survey from the time of discovery and exploration of America through the founding and development of the 13 English colonies, the Revolutionary War, the establishment of the United States Constitution and government, the War of 1812, westward expansion and manifest destiny, states' rights, slavery, the Civil War, and Reconstruction. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 2	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	HIST 112 American History II Survey from 1877, examining American institutions and ideas; the rise of nationalism; the emergence of America as a strong nation; WWI and the Great Depression; WWII and the Cold War; and the United State's role in the worldwide political situation. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	HIST 115 World Civilization Survey of the political, social, economic, and cultural aspects of world civilization from antiquity to the Reformation. Students are exposed to a panoramic view of historical development, with emphasis on how people throughout history have addressed major issues confronting them within historical context. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	PSCY 112 Introduction to Psychology This is a half-term, accelerated course (Aug 25 – Oct 17, 2021). Introduction to basic procedures in the study of behavior and to elementary principles of conditioning, motivation, emotion, personality, sensation, perception, abnormal behavior, psychotherapy, and social dynamics. Course has weekly due dates. See the Evangel Bookstore for required textbooks.	LEC 2	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	COMM 113 Introduction to Mass Communication Survey of the traditional mass media from both historical and cultural perspectives, including attention to media theories and effects, media operations, and social and economic problems in the media. Introduction to advertising, public relations, the relationships of foreign media to American media, media ethics and law, and new media technologies, including the Internet. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195
<input type="checkbox"/>	GSCI 115 Physical Science w/ Lab Study of motion and energy, the basic ideas of electricity, the phenomena of light and radiation, elementary thermodynamics, and the structure of matter in terms of atoms and molecules and their nature. Laboratory course included. Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22 w/ LAB 55	4	$260
<input type="checkbox"/>	MATH 124 Intermediate Algebra Further investigation of topics covered in a first algebra course, such as properties of real numbers, linear equations and inequalities, polynomials, and functional relationships. Additional topics may include exponential and logarithmic functions as well as sequences and series. Prerequisite: successful completion of high school Algebra I and Algebra II (or equivalent). Self-paced course; all course materials included with registration.	LEC 22	3	$195