Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Humanitarian Relief and Development

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed. At the conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Define essential issues in human history, identify ways others have addressed those issues, and explore the applicability of those approaches to other intellectual, political, social, and spiritual contexts.
2. Demonstrate analytical reading skills and engage various primary and secondary source materials.
3. Describe and interpret knowledge of nations and regions of the world with key historical and cultural events in those regions.
4. Summarize and evaluate perspectives of people groups and nations, historic and contemporary.
5. Critique and analyze historical worldviews considering commonly held Christian views.
