

College of Arts and Sciences

Behavioral and Social Sciences Department

Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Psychology

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed. At the conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the major theoretical approaches and trends in psychology.
2. Apply the scientific method and critical thinking in the study of psychology.
3. Understand human behavior in light of culture, diversity, and human development.
4. Demonstrate effective written and oral communication for the discipline of psychology.
5. Demonstrate self-awareness of their behavior, motives, values, and strengths.
6. Demonstrate the integration of their Christian faith with their knowledge of psychology.
7. Prepare for vocational training or graduate work in such fields as psychology, counseling, social work, or criminal justice.