

Assemblies of God Theological Seminary

Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed. At the conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Missiological/Intercultural Disciplines

Demonstrate a breadth of knowledge in theological and religious studies and other academic disciplines, and a comprehensive knowledge of the disciplines that comprise missiology and intercultural studies.

2. Missional Scholarship

Competently innovate, defend and critique scholarly work and missional practice for the benefit of the academy and the broader community of faith.

3. Intercultural Missional Research

Demonstrate ability to engage in original missiological intercultural research and writing that contribute to the discipline and to their research context for the sake of their tradition, the Church and the academy.

4. Spiritual Formation

Make decisions, live and serve according to revealed truth and the will of God in a continuing integrated commitment to learning, spiritual formation, and personal and professional growth.

5. Contextualization

Demonstrate the ability to utilize research and theological/missiological reflection in specific contexts.

6. Personal Scholarship

Commit to the vocation of theological, missiological and intercultural scholarship in its dimensions of teaching, learning, and research.