

Assemblies of God Theological Seminary

Master of Theology in Intercultural Studies

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed. At the conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. A deepening biblical and theological understanding of Missio Dei and the kingdom of God
2. A distinctively Pentecostal theology of intercultural ministry
3. An understanding of the historical development of the Christian movement and the participant's role in the contemporary world
4. The ability to discern the Holy Spirit's direction in the fulfillment of the mission of God in diverse cultural settings and to contextualize effective expressions of the Gospel
5. An emphasis on the priorities of evangelism, church planting, leadership formation, and compassion ministries
6. A continuing commitment to personal spiritual formation and growth as a member of God's missionary people
7. A working knowledge of the close relationship between the local church and missions
