

College of Arts and Sciences

Behavioral and Social Sciences Department

Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Government

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed. At the conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Explain the structure, principles, and processes of the American federal government.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the background, development, problems, and Constitutional aspects of church-state relations in the United States.
3. Demonstrate the ability to treat government as a discipline and a science utilizing research and writing methods utilized in government research and reports.