Associate of Arts in Leadership

The following Program Learning Outcomes have been established by Evangel faculty to define the areas of knowledge and skills that students graduating from this major degree program should have developed. At the conclusion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Compare and demonstrate leadership traits, skills, and styles of effective servant-leaders.
2. Integrate biblical truth and principles with personal values and ethical conduct which exemplify Christ-centered leadership.
3. Apply critical thinking and problem-solving skills to self-directed learning and effective oral and written communication.
4. Articulate and demonstrate intra-personal and inter-personal practices and skills in order to promote healthy lifestyles and relationships.
5. Discuss and defend the importance of cultural and human diversity.
6. Demonstrate the importance of social responsibility and engagement as a citizen and leader in a community in order to have a Christian impact outside the local church.
