

Scan the QR code and get your application started today!

HUMANITIES FINE ARTS SCHOLARSHIPS

Apply for up to $16,000 in Humanities Fine Arts Scholarships for Art, Theatre, and Writing

Applicants pursuing a major or minor in the following areas are invited to apply for a Fine Arts Scholarship in Humanities. Scholarships are only available during the recruitment process. Schedule your portfolio review, audition, or interview during any of our upcoming Evangel Preview events online at www.evangel.edu/visit or contact the professor to schedule an interview for another time.

Evangel University has a firm deadline of January 27, 2027 for all Fine Arts scholarship applications and submissions. Scan the QR code or use this link to access the application form: <https://evangel.tfaforms.net/217781>

Art

Students interested in majoring in Art or Art Education or minoring in Art are eligible for this scholarship.

A physical portfolio of artwork

- Portfolio may contain a range of disciplines or genres with up to fifteen works.
- Portfolio may include four or five examples from several media or disciplines. For example, include 9 or 10 works in your favorite medium, and complete the portfolio with several pieces created in other media. Three-dimensional works may be submitted in the form of digitized images or printouts.

A Statement of Intent (500-700 words) addressing the following topics:

- Explain how your art is related to your faith.
- Discuss your hopes and plans for using art in your career(s).
- Describe examples of your self-motivation to practice your art.

To be eligible for a Fine Arts Scholarship for Art, all applicants must fill out the application form, send their portfolio to the email that follows or review it with the professor in person, and submit a Statement of Intent to Art Professor Mike Buesking bueskingm@evangel.edu by January 27, 2027.

Theatre

Students interested in majoring in Theatre, Music Theatre, or Theatre/Speech Education or minoring in Theatre are eligible for this scholarship.

Theatre Audition Guidelines

- Performers should prepare two contrasting monologues (from published plays) totaling three minutes of performance time. No props or costumes should be used.
- Performers interested in music theatre should prepare one song and a monologue, preferably one from the literature of well-known musical theatre. Students must have access to a recorded backing track that can be played through a bluetooth speaker. Please email the theatre professor below about setting up an audition.
- When preparing monologues, avoid selections with dialects or accents.

EVANGEL
UNIVERSITY

HUMANITIES DEPARTMENT

Apply for up to $16,000 in Humanities
Fine Arts Scholarships for Art, Theatre, and Writing

Scan the QR code and get your application started today!

A Statement of Intent (500-700 words) addressing the following topics:

- Explain how your involvement in theatre is related to your faith.
- Discuss your hopes and plans for using theatre in your career(s).
- Describe examples of your self-motivation to practice theatre.

Please contact Professor Angeline Bradford bradforda@evangel.edu to schedule a theatre audition. To be eligible for a Fine Arts Scholarship for Theatre, all applicants must fill out the application form, complete their audition (in person or virtually), and submit a Statement of Intent to Professor Bradford by January 27, 2027.

✦ Writing: Creative Writing and/or Essays on Literature

Students interested in majoring in English (Literature, TESOL or Writing Tracks) or minoring in English, TESOL, or Writing are eligible for this scholarship.

A writing portfolio for one of these options:

- Writing compilation of 1,500-5,000 words that includes at least TWO of the following: short fiction, book chapter, creative nonfiction, poetry, stage-play, article, or essays on literature. These writings could have been written for a class or on your own. Note: Applicants who primarily write poetry may submit five poems as well as one or two other genres of writing, such as any of the fiction or nonfiction options listed above. With poetry, you do not have to meet the 1,500 word minimum.

A Statement of Intent (500-700 words) addressing the following topics:

- Explain how your writing is related to your faith.
- Discuss your hopes and plans for using writing in your career(s).
- Describe examples of your self-motivation to practice writing.

To be eligible for a Fine Arts Scholarship for Writing, all applicants must fill out the application form, send their writing to Professor LaDonna Friesen at friesenl@evangel.edu or review it with the professor in person, and submit a Statement of Intent by January 27, 2027.